

DEAN HOFFMEYER/TIMES-DISPATCH

48th annual Humanitarian Awards Dinner

Maureen Denlea Massey (above), a community volunteer and nonprofit consultant, was among those honored by the Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities last night at the Richmond Marriott downtown. Other recipients of the Humanitarian Award for 2010 were (below, from left) Tommy P. Baer, an attorney and former board chairman for the First Freedom Center; Ranjit K. Sen, chairman and CEO of CXI Inc.; and LaVerne B. Spurlock, a retired educator and founding member of Virginia Heroes Incorporated. John W. Kinney (below, second from right), dean of the School of Theology at Virginia Union University, accepted the Jeffrey B. Spence Award for Interfaith Understanding, and Michael Farley (below, far right) accepted the Distinguished Merit Citation for Elk Hill, an educational facility in Goochland County of which he is executive director.
