VIRGINIA CENTER FOR INCLUSIVE COMMUNITIES TO HONOR FIVE HUMANITARIANS AT 44th ANNUAL AWARDS DINNER

Lynchburg VA, 25 May 2011 ... The 44th Annual Humanitarian Awards Dinner of the Lynchburg Chapter of the Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities will be held on Wednesday, May 25, 2011, at Lynchburg College. Bert Dodson, Jr., President of Dodson Pest Control, is serving as the Dinner Chair, assuming the leadership role in honoring individuals who have made significant humanitarian contributions to the greater Lynchburg community. To assist in presenting the awards, the Master of Ceremonies for the event will be Noreen Turyn, senior anchor and managing editor of WSET-TV ABC13.

The recipients of the prestigious Humanitarian Award for 2011 are: Lorenza E. Davis, William H. Gorman, Robert C. Roberts, Patricia S. Worsham, and James W. Wright.

The Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities promotes understanding and respect on all issues of diversity for all age groups all across Virginia. Since 2005, the number of programs conducted by VCIC has increased by an impressive 200%. Locally, the organization offers educational programs to students and teachers in the Greater Lynchburg area, as well as community programs and professional development for adults.

Advance reservations are required for the Dinner event. For more information about the organization, contact the VCIC office at 804-515-7950.
