

BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION

TREY HARTT

Development & Program Coordinator
Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities

Trey Hartt is Development & Program Coordinator at the Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities, an organization that promotes understanding and respect on all issues of diversity, for all age groups, all across Virginia. In his role, he plans, organizes, and manages events and campaigns connected to VCIC's fund development and program efforts across the Commonwealth. Among Trey's specific responsibilities are the implementation of Humanitarian Awards Dinners and forums on diversity issues for middle school and high school students.

Trey comes to Inclusive Communities with a background in arts administration, grassroots organizing, and using art as a tool for social change. A graduate of Virginia Commonwealth University with his BFA in Theatre Performance, he has been immersed in the non-profit field with professional work or internships at AlternateROOTS, Arena Stage, The Conciliation Project, and Virginians for the Arts. Trey has also been an instructor at VCU for a course entitled "The Business of Non-Profit Theatre: turning concept into reality."

In the community, Trey currently serves on the Executive Committee for The Conciliation Project, as well as the Board of Directors for AlternateROOTS. Occasionally, he can be found acting onstage with The Conciliation Project.