“RVA ROUNDTABLE ON RACE” TO ENGAGE DIVERSE
COMMUNITY MEMBERS IN CRITICAL CONVERSATIONS

The Black History Museum & Cultural Center of Virginia and the Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities have invited the RVA community to a roundtable conversation on race, law enforcement, and coming together. Space is limited and registration is required.

What: RVA Roundtable on Race

When: Sunday, July 17, 2016 from 3:30pm – 5:30pm (due to overwhelming demand, a second Roundtable has just been scheduled for July 17 from 1:00pm – 3:00pm*)

Where: Black History Museum & Cultural Center of Virginia
122 West Leigh Street
Richmond, VA 23220

Who: People from diverse racial, ethnic, and cultural backgrounds throughout the Richmond region have registered to attend. Representatives from local law enforcement communities have also been invited.

How: The program will feature small group conversations and facilitated large group dialogue to help participants explore diverse experiences and perspectives.

Why: The dialogue will be designed to build empathy and respect so that participants can identify opportunities to foster greater equity and inclusion in the Richmond region and beyond.
